
Copyright 1877 by The Root & Sons Music Co.

BUT OF THEE

Words & Music by WARD THATCHER.

Andantino.

p Ped
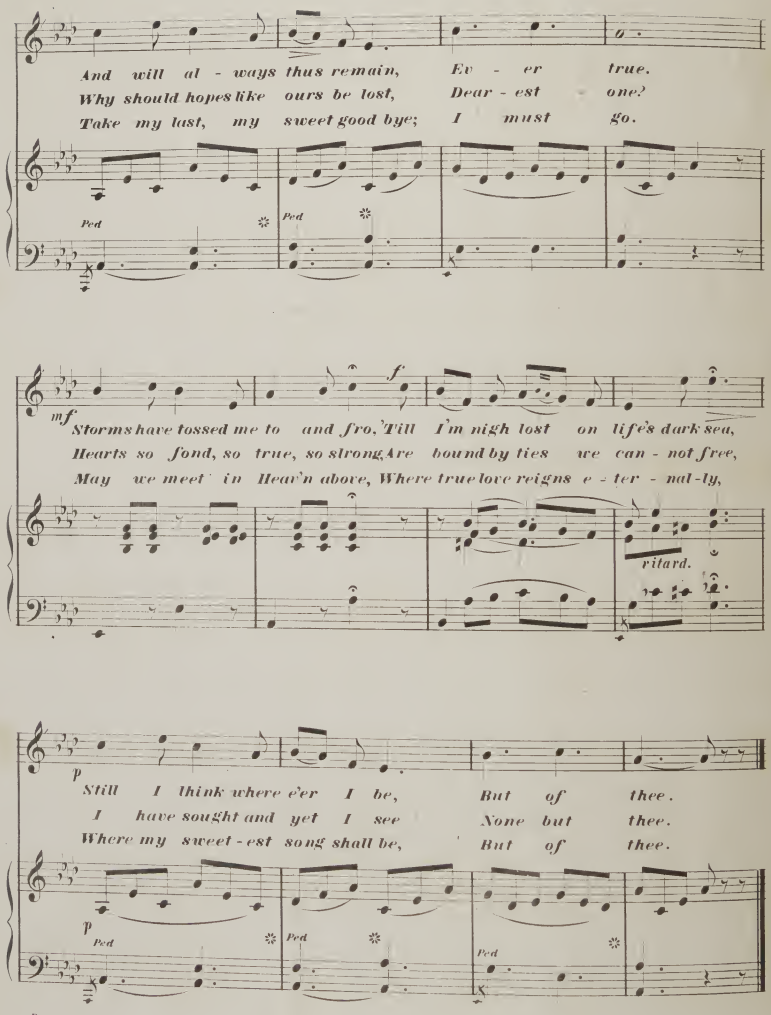
1. Love, my heart is just the same – All for you;
2. Why should love like our's be cross'd And un - done?
3. Fare thee well! oh sweetest joy I'll e'er Know,
Ped
Ped

Copyright 1877 by The Root & Sons Music Co.



And will al - ways thus remain, Ev - er true.
Why should hopes like ours be lost, Dear - est one?
Take my last, my sweet good bye; I must go.
Ped
Ped
mf
f
Storms have tossed me to and fro, 'Till I'm nigh lost on life's dark sea,
Hearts so fond, so true, so strong Are bound by ties we can - not free,
May we meet in Heav'n above, Where true love reigns e - ter - nal - ly, ritard.
p
Still I think where e'er I be, But of thee.
I have sought and yet I see None but thee.
Where my sweet - est song shall be, But of thee.
p Ped
Ped
Ped

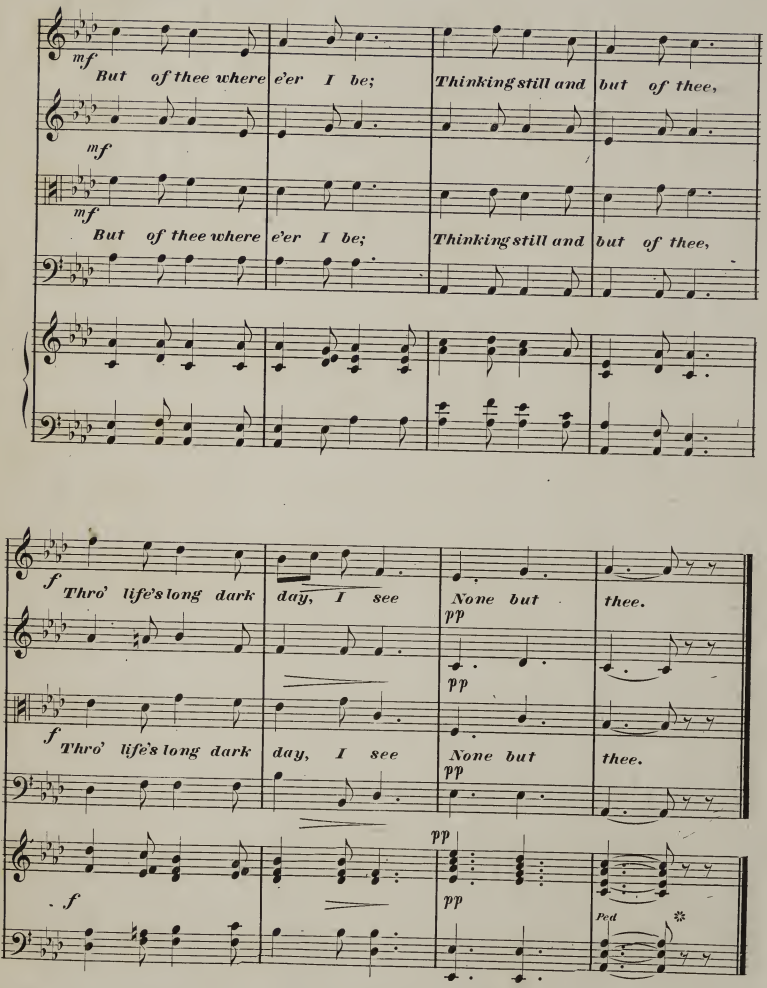
CHORUS.



Chantier Eng. Chicago